

I am against BPL because I am concerned about Radio Frequency Interference. While BPL probably works under ideal, perfect circumstances, those circumstances rarely exist in the real world. The power companies have enough problems with RFI without broadcasting more frequencies over their lines.